Prize competition « Summer Game »

Article 1 – Arrangement

In the framework of a marketing campaign aimed at promoting the shops at Luxembourg Airport, the company “Société de l’Aéroport de Luxembourg S.A.” (lux-Airport) offers a digital game under the name “Summer game”, created by company Adictiz, which includes a prize competition based on Trivia videogame scores.

The limited timeframe for participation in this prize competition extends from 12 July 2025 until 20 August 2025.

Article 2 – Eligibility

The prize competition is meant for the customers of the shops of our commercial partners located inside the terminal building of Luxembourg Airport.

The selected shops are the following: Starbucks, Oberweis Shop, Press & Books, Aelia Duty Free, Panopolis, Moselier, Lux-Brewery, Petit Moselier, Sandwiches and Cie.

To be eligible, customers must comply with all of the following conditions:

- Be a physical person who is at least 18 years of age on the day of participation.
- Employees of lux-Airport, SSP, Lagardère, Valora, cannot participate in this prize competition.

Article 3 – Participation

In order to participate, customers have to scan a QR code that will be shown on all JCDecaux digital screens in the airport, in A4 format in the shops and on social media; they will have to insert name, surname, email address, their origin and their destination and then play the videogame. Depending on the obtained scores, the participants will then receive an email, which may include several discounts and vouchers that can be instantly redeemed in the shops and restaurants at Luxembourg airport. Each participant has three attempts to play the game but can win only one coupon for all the duration of the campaign.

The participation is voluntary and totally free of charge. The email addresses are collected exclusively for the determination and notification of the winners. They are going to be deleted after the end of the marketing campaign, unless the participants actively tick the box to register for the lux-Airport newsletter.
